

ANTIBIOTICS

Drycloxakel

intramammary ointment

Composition

1 injector contains:

Cloxacillin benzathine 1000 mg

Excipients up to 9000 mg.

Target species

Cattle

Indications

For therapeutic and prophylactic treatment of mastitis caused by cloxacillin sensitive bacteria in cows at drying-off.

Dosage and administration

Intramammary administration.

After the final milking, clean and disinfect teats. Thereafter instill the contents of one injector into each quarter. Treatment should be started at least 60 days before expected calving date.

Pack size

Box with 20 injectors (containing 9 g of suspension).

Disclaimer

Please be aware that product names, product specifications and availability can differ between countries. Not all products and indications are licensed in every country. For more detailed information in this regard, please contact us.

